Everyone at onetime or another has a hidden agenda, sometimes good and sometimes bad but we still continue to do what we have planned so that we achieve that goal.

Such asâ€!â€!.

He has a hidden agenda Sophia, so you better be careful because I think he is after you for some reason other then love.

Orâ€!..

Do you know that the secretary has a hidden agenda Marie so we better keep an eye on her or she will have our jobs.
