

Forum: Grammar iˈɪ/æ-ʔæ³iˈɪ/æ%

Topic: Tag Questions

Subject: Re: Tag Questions

Posted by: glotynn

Posted on: 2008/7/10 15:29:38

Quote:

buddy wrote:

Quote:

glotynn wrote:

4. Let me do it myself, will/won't you?
5. Let us do what we want, will/won't you?
7. Let's not go to the park, shall we?
8. Let's not watch TV, shall we?
9. Have a cup of tea, will/won't you?

In the past couple weeks, I consulted grammar books on hand and searched online for Tag Question repeatedly. Unluckily, I have never seen any Tag Question is similar to the sentence pattern.

Here is my two cents:

4. Let me do it myself, will you?
5. Let us do what we want, will you?
7. Let's not go to the park, all right/ O.K.?
8. Let's not watch TV, all right/ O.K.?
9. Have a cup of tea, won't you?

Hi Buddy,

"all right/ O.K.?" is not the way a tag question presents. It must consist of an auxiliary and a pronoun.

"Let me..." or "Let us..." or other imperative sentences can be tagged with either "will you" or "won't you".

"Let's..." or "Let's not..." sentences are normally tagged with "shall we".