Windflowers    Seals & Crofts

Windflowers

My father told me not to go near them

He feared them always

Said them carried him away

Windflowers

I couldn't wait to touch them, to smell them

I held them closely

Now I can not break away

The sweet bouquet disappears

Like the vapor in the desert

Take a warning, son

Windflowers

Their beauty captures every young dreamer who lingers near them

Ancient windflowers, I love you
