Hm, this happened some 4 or 5 years ago... I have to admit, I did not like that girl (actually a woman) at all... But I could not make her understand this. And the more she felt I did not want her the more desperately she tried to keep me - and this made the whole relation even worse...

The starngest is that if finally I would not have broken up with her I could not start a new relation, consequently I could not get to Taiwan, consequently I would not learn Chinese, consequently I would not be here writing to you... Life is mysterios - and fado expresses it so perfectly!

Yes, it is one of my great dreams, a Northern look stranger in a dark corner of an old Lisboa taverna, ha-ha...

Did you meet this girl again? Or did the Fado kill the relationship softly and sweet . . .

Aaaah, . . . already a story like a good Fado again ~~~

Brother, put out the glasses ~~~
