Ah, you hard Hungarian guys ...

Why not to join a marathon in Harbin. They still seem to look for some international support from overseas ...

Now, suddenly I started thinking about this... I myself did not find this topic depressing - comparing to those novelettes of Samuel Beckett (as Molloy or Melone Dies), huhh, that is depression itself...

(But the worst of all is a scientific work, Richard Dawkins' 'The Selfish Gene' - I lost my faith reading it...
)

It's windy here: perfect for running!!! But cold? No, dagege, this is still not cold...

I once tried to read his "The Gulag Archipelago" and "Cancer Ward" ... that was enough for the rest of my life ... I guess~~~

Btw, so cold here ... no need in the moment to think about Siberia ...
