THE LAST TROLLEY BUS

When I'm in trouble and totally done and when all my hope I abandon I get on the blue trolley bus on the run, the last one,
at random.

Night trolley, roll on sliding down the street, around the boulevards keep moving to pick up all those who are wrecked and in need of rescue
from ruin.

Night trolley bus will you please open your doors !
On wretched cold nights, I can instance, your sailors would come, as a matter of course, to render assistance.

So many a time they have lent me a hand to help me get out of grievance...
Imagine, there is so much kindness behind this silence
and stillness.

Last trolley rolls round the greenery belt and Moscow, like river, dies down... the hammering blood in my temples I felt calms down
calms down.
