This is a wonderful song 123, I have loved it since the first time I heard it and have enjoyed it since. sometimes we hear a song that brings feelings rushing..... This is one.

There will be words of wisdom

There will be an answer

There is still light that shines on me

Things are not always easy for you and me but one day

There will be an answer

to all the questions

there will be

love

happiness

care

the music within our heart so let it be

and it will come

one day, one day

you will hear

the whispers of words of wisdom let it be.....
