that one åĤåĤ´ should be a collage. i think only as i have not taken any åĤåĤ´ b4.. it is juxtaposition of one pre-fixed image on the other one. the one i did is post-editing of the images i took and i think is a montage...it is difficult to tell what is the original unless the creator supplies the processing data in the altered images. however through 'visual logic'(cow sense) one should be able to detect whether one image is original, for eg. from the shade and shadows...color blending etc..
see below for another montage. u can see any moth-like creature?
