1. On September 15 every year of lunar calendar, the Chinese world shows a prosperous atmosphere.
2. The day is called 鬼節, which is the day that Chinese offer sacrifices to "ghost" from the custom.
3. Many stores offer a lot of sacrifices to gods in these days in order to have good business achievement.
4. But it is not good feeling that a man is fumed by smoke when he is walking on the street for pedestrians.
5. It is worth reflecting that how to keep the balance between stores' and pedestrians' request.
