I adore the well-known Japanese author Haruki Murakami's novels. In childhood, I read his books in Chinese. In adulthood, I enjoy reading his novels in English.

Whenever I read his novels, I felt that a smooth breeze blowing through my whole body. The wording and sentences are so well-organized that I couldn't stop reading it once I got started.

Recently, the book I read was 'Kafka on the shore'.

Which authors do you like? Or which books ever touched your mind?
