That's good! Deal! And, THANKS!!!

Only jpg, gif and zip files can be attached and the file size cannot be larger than 1000KB. The file you sent is an pps file that cannot be attached. However I have stored it locally on the server and provided a link to download it. This file is quite large and might take some time to download. So please be patient, folks.

Please refer to futari's original post for the link.
