Life is about sacrifices and learning what to lose to make living valuable again. If we are unwilling to sacrifice our philosophy of life and our ideas of good and bad we will find that we live in a very small mind that brings to us a very small life.

Wisdom is only found in truth. The doorstep to the temple of wisdom is knowledge of our own ignorance. You may not believe it wise men learn more from fools than fools from wise men. Want to know why? Because there is this adage that says ...a fool may ask more questions in an hour than a wise man can answer in seven years.

EPILOGUE

The state of disharmony or conflict resulting in constant exchanges in the household is seriously undermining the magnificent culture of OKEnglish. The superb ethnicity must not be obliterated by engaging in an epic battle that ought to be discontinued, let alone start it! Victories that are cheap are cheap!
