This the last but most important part of the test.

From how I ended the story... a tornado approaches...

What are you going to do?

There are only 3 options:

(i) run and hide in the box?

(ii) run and hide under the bridge?

(iii) run to the horse, ride on and gallop away?

What will you choose?

Now, the above is signified by these things:

tornado - problems in your life

box - you

bridge - your friends

horse - your partner

(i) So if you choose the box, you keep your problems to yourself whenever you are met with problems.

(ii) or if you choose the bridge, you will go to your friends whenever you are met problems.

(iii) or lastly if you choose the horse, you seek your partner whenever your partner whenever you are met with problems.
