i know this may sound hilarious. most of the western countries, they are situated at where snow every winter or even every month or none-stop. ppl in oregon or other northern america states do not need to learn how to express they want to ㄟㄣㄣ cuz i bet &%&^%( they are dying to get the snow outta their rooftop n frontyard. BUT, what about ppl in florida or taiwan....

my question is that, have you ever heard of people expressing they want to go ㄟㄣㄣ in english?

ps. plz don't tell me it's "snow-watching"...

spare me
