Suggested Revisions

Judging from my own experience, I am convinced that the aged are an indispensable part for in our society.

Every morning, the happiest matter thing is that I hear my grandmother's smiling kind and cheerful voice while when opening my sleepy eyes, because I realize that means I will enjoy excellent breakfast she prepares for our family specifically specially. Then, Grandmother watches us go to dissimilar destinations for pursuing education or working and we all set our mind at ease to trust the entire house to her for we know she can attend very well to everything very well, including domestic chores or and home environment, so that the house is always the making it an extremely comfortable and relaxing place to refresh and warm our bodies and minds. At this point in time, I literally believe it is a so perfect event to own a grandmother.

She is not so healthy and vigorous as well as youngsters; nevertheless however, she has more much spare time to express solicitude to other the people, or and she frequently provides some useful advices by past experiences to handle troubles which younglings may encounter or have never encountered. Then, Through the interaction, the history of mankind can inherit and progress. So, I think the aged are really like priceless treasure to everyone.
