If I Have Forgotten

Sometime we run through life
We forget to tell the one we Love
Just how much we care and love them
We forget the kiss on their lips
As we walk out the door
We forget to tell them how we feel
Hiding our feelings within our heart
Not because we donâ€™t love them
But because we just simply forget
Where the truest love is

That love is the one
The one we truly love
But we forget
Forget so much
We forget what they do for us
We forget their loving touch
As they reach out to us
We forget what is truly important
And that is the love
The care we do carry within us

If I have forgot to tell you
It is not because I do not care
For there is nothing more important
Then you
Then the love I have deep in my heart

There is no love stronger then mine
For you
There is no love greater then the love
You share with me
There is no love more powerful
Then the truest love of the heart
The love within my heart
For I do love you from the depths of my soul
Remember that my love even when I forget

Maybe I am old and I forget

Maybe I am busy and I forget
Maybe I am just too damn stupid to say
How much I love you

I will never forget again
To tell you how I feel
What is in my heart and soul
For now I realize I took the one
I love for granted
I love you remember that!

Honey if I gave this to you already
Please forgive me
I just simply forgot
I gave it to you
