Let me reiterate my last two posts...

"Good expression to describe ppl who just want the last word"

"Excellent words! Alright buddy, the forum is all yours. You have the last word."

So what do you call people who always want the last word? And who did I say have the last word?
Case rested, game is over, Hasta La Vista, it's too late for taunts, I'm already bored, I don't do mercy killings, I'm outta here, peace out!
