I just found this interesting...

I started reading articles on an American Chinese site, and the freshest one is quite strange....

<http://www.cnd.org/my/modules/wfsection/article.php%3Farticleid=37790>

It is not about the content, but the symbols. I don't know what input mode the author may have used, just observe this:

ä,Ž,æ²j, âŠž, æ`iä»¬ etc. vs. â-æ j and é›žè›.

Quite strange... Maybe someone corrected the text...
