I agree, Dagege! In fact I have forgotten we originally listened to the French version, but it - as far as can recall - disappeared after a time...

There was only one occasion I liked the English version: in the film 'Apollo 13'. There it was perfect.

Hmm, ... to tell you the truth, when I listen to Charles Trenet, I start to dream. When I listen to the English version from Bobby Darin, ... I cannot help ... I look for the stop button immediately ...

Somehow something is missing ... at least for me~~~
