Hello all:

--The Chinese valentine's Day will come at the end of july .

How do you celebrate it with your boyfriend or girlfriend?

What words you want to say to the one you love?

have you ever heard any love story around you touched you so much no matter it has good result or bad result?

Have you been hurt deeply by someone you have ever liked? why? Or have you done something make the one you like angry and you want to say some words to her/him for regrat?

Do you want to say words to your admirer or say to the one you admire ?

.....so many things you can say whatever you want to say here.
