His aunt died and left a heritage of a hundred million dollar property. Before her death he had declared the news that hoped [b]visited all the doctors in town, hoping someone could cure his aunt's disease to all people living in the city. After the declaration, [/b]Then[/b] a doctor came and healed his aunt made a trial.

On the second[/b]The next[/b] day, he found the million wereproperty was gone. andHe doubted if that the doctor might have stolen the money, as well as saying something bad on so he revealed the doubt onto[/b] the doctor. Due to his doubtln consequence, the doctor made a committed suicide by hanging himself to prove himself clean. He leant on the chairback and in regretful thought that he spoke the illness ofhad done wrong to the doctor by doubting and criticizing him unjustly of the lost property[/b]who he had doubted stole the million. Finally he hung himself finally,tooas well. What a strange thing incident it was!
