- 1) What can be half full, three-quarters full, but never empty?
- 2) What is it that when you take away the whole, you still have some left over?
- 3) If you have it, you want to share it, but if you share it, you don't have it. What is it?
- 4) What part of your body disappears when you stand up?
- 5) What goes around the world and yet stays in a corner?
- 6) I can be cracked, I can be made, I can be told, I can be played. What am I?
- 7) I'm part of the bird that's not in the sky; I can swim in the ocean and yet remain dry. What am I?
- 8) I run over fields and woods all day;
Under the bed I sit all alone.
My tongue hangs out, up to the rear;
I'm waiting to be filled in the morning.
What am I?
- *9) As a whole, I am both safe and secure.
Behead me, and I become a place for a meeting.
Behead me again, and I become the partner of ready.
Restore me, and I become the domain of beasts.
What am I?
- *10) Two sisters are we, one dark and one fair;
In twin towers dwelling we're quite a pair.
One from the land, and one from the sea,
Tell us truly, who are we?
- 11) Who ever makes it tells it not;
Who ever takes it, knows it not;
Who ever knows it, wants it not.
What is it?
- 12) People are hired to get rid of me;
I'm often hiding under your bed.
In time I'll always return you see;
Bite me and you're surely dead.
What am I?
