The phrase "Que Sera, Sera" came from a movie called The Barefoot Contessa, where the character Rossano Brazzi's family motto was "Che Sera, Sera." The motto in the film was Italian, but Evans and Livingston switched the "Che" to "Que" because more people spoke Spanish in the US.

it's mean" Whatever will be, will be"

my favorite song

it's true "whatever will be , will be "

so "blowing in the wind "
