Whole World Around

Life's been good, I can't complain so far

Designer clothes, expensive caviar

And gated homes to keep the wolves at bay

Tinted glass to hide my guilt and shame

You got the whole world around

You got the whole world around

Something tells me not to make a scene

Ah~ open your heart and let me in

You got the whole world around

You got the whole world around

You got the whole world around

You got the whole world around
