Nooo, Lin, you are encouraging in the best way!

See, this is the problem: I run off road, mostly in the fields that are under agriculture cultivation.

Those huge machines - by their weight - dig grooves, and these grooves keep the water after rains.

So there become 10-15 meter long ponds. It is not ideal for running.

And this is exactly what has happened today, I can not go out, hÃ¼pp-hÃ¼pp-hÃ¼pp...

wow... prepare now~ its never too late.

OOps!! Dashushu, only weather permits okay? I don't want to be the 'one' to encourage you to the cold and damp jungle track ( if there is even a track !!??) and beget a cold last but not least, 'go for it'
