Well... before I say something here, Julia, Frank, thank you so much for making an effort, gathering all of us together, I am grateful and appreciate what you have done for us.

I am speaking out my mind here. I find that it infact very boring to log in to facebook account and see nothing like ncikuan account but then I must remember that it is keeping us together for the time being ,so if I am absent for a while, it doesn't mean that I have forgotten everyone, same goes to Okenglish too.

I am always Lin, the naughty one..

Take care my beloved friends...

P/S oh! I still go for my run and still train few times a week too..
