This is a wonderful song 123, I have loved it since the first time I heard it and have enjoyed it since. sometimes we hear a song that brings feelings rushing This is one.
There will be words of wisdon
There will be an answer
There is still light that shines on me Things are not always easy for you and me but one day
There will be an answer to all the questions
there will be
love
happiness
care
the music within our heart so let it be
and it will come
one day, one day
you will hear
the whispers of words of wisdon let it be
