Kat I never had a pet named peeve but I do have one named devil...

kat I as many people have a pet peeves, such as being in a nice restaurant and having the person next to you talking on their cell phone loud enough that the people sitting 10 tables away can hear them on the phone, another is when people go into a movie theater and talk during the movie. Wow I can list so many but I will let others tell you what pisses them off..... ha ha
