Allow me ...

TASS indeed is an abbreviation for "Telegraph Agency of The Soviet Union"

But it is also a noun that has two meanings.

1. 'Tass' is the name of a Russian Daily.
2. 'Tass' is also a glass of wine (more popularly referred to by the Scots.

geoette, thanks for your info.

I've looked it up again in other big dictionaries and these are my findings:

1. a heap/pile/stack/rick/mow [Obsolete English]
2. a pouch/purse/pocket/chest [Foreign Root]
3. a drinking cup or its contents; a small draught of liquor as contained in a wine glass (As in French, "une tasse")
4. = "tash"

Thanks again.

Thanks, Futari and Geo.

I didn't need a big dictionary to look up the word tass. Yahoo online dictionary has it.
