Courtesy, maybe someday I'll preach the facts of life from the Bible, but now I got to work on the hypocritical factor, so people won't call me a hypocrite. You can't tell people how to live while being a bad example. That's all I'm going to say about that. BTW, do you have a grind-organ?

I donâ€™t know what is grind-organ and donâ€™t wish to find out. If it is something not nice, you can keep it for yourself. And I donâ€™t need a reply!

Who is to call who a hypocrite? I rather let the members and viewers of this site to conclude.
