Hi Cute,

Sha Mao Shan (沙毛山) is a lovely place in suburban Taipei, where I used to taste the native chicken (土雞) and to take a free hotspring bath in the restaurant (餐廳) with friends to spend the evening hours. It's located up the hillway extended from Tianmu (天母), about 30-minute drive from downtown Taipei.

Hi Glot

I also remember along that stretch of hillway is a restaurant (built of timber) that offers no meat or fish, but only vegetable dishes. Cheers.
